

Zulu Land Itinerary.

Day	Morning	Afternoon	Evening
Saturday	Meet Global Handprints Guide and fellow Road Trippers at King Shaka (DBN) airport.	Travel from Durban to Dukuduku Village, leaving King Shaka (DBN) airport at 1pm. And stopping at the Luthuli Museum en route	Check in and settle at the Zulu cultural centre followed by a traditional Zulu dinner with dancing and cultural activities.
Sunday	Spend the day at the fabulous Cape Vidal beach in iSimangaliso Wetlands Park, part of the UNESCO World Heritage Site. Getting to and from Cape Vidal involves driving through the Eastern Shores of Lake St Lucia enabling you to see a variety of the African Big 5.		Following a Hippo 'N' Croc boat trip on St Lucia estuary, enjoy a dinner in town.
Monday	Spend the morning hanging out with African cats including getting up close and personal with the fastest land mammal.	Volunteer at a local school and spend the afternoon starting and finishing a project; painting or re-flopping a classroom, organising a sports event.	End the day settling in to your accommodation near Lake Sibaya, your home for the next few nights.
Tuesday	Spend the day as a community volunteer with a local agriculture Guru, collecting data in the community and visiting local homes to check in on their gardens.		Help out local families cooking a traditional meal, all sitting down to eat together giving you a chance to practise your language skills!
Wednesday	Spend the day volunteering at a local primary school; decorating and revamping old classroom benches, teaching reading and organizing sports activities.		Get involved in a community Karate lesson!
Thursday	Spend the day volunteering at a local High School helping with reading, math and essay writing support groups.		Enjoy a sunset yoga class overlooking Lake Sibaya followed by homecooked dinner.
Friday	Spend the morning helping out in community gardens; weeding, planting and harvesting.	Learn how to make a traditional Grass Mat from reeds.	Relax on an after dinner evening drive around Lake Sibaya.
Saturday	Enjoy a bright and early start ready for a morning of learning how to dive followed by a dive in Sodwana bay, known for its excellent diving conditions.	Spend the afternoon helping Honorary Officers in the local game park, observing animals and getting rid of alien plants.	Following dinner there's free time to experience Sodwana Bay town or relax, chill out and collect your thoughts.
Sunday	Enjoy the morning on the beach in Sodwana Bay; snorkeling and swimming.	Travel along the coast of the Indian Ocean, 4x4ing through sand dunes en route to Rocktail Bay	Check in and get settled at the backpackers followed by dinner.
Monday	Spend the day as a community volunteer at local projects with the local tribe: planting vegetable gardens, teaching nutrition / finance / budgeting skills, attending support groups, being creative at children's centre.		Get competitive with fellow Road Trippers at games night.
Tuesday	Spend the day as a community volunteer at local projects with the local tribe: planting vegetable gardens, teaching nutrition / finance / budgeting skills, attending support groups, being creative at children's centre.		Check out Loggerhead and Leatherback turtles as they nest or hatch on the surrounding beaches.

han(d)|print/: (noun) impression or mark made by a hand

Day	Morning	Afternoon	Evening
Wednesday	Continue traveling up the coast towards Kosi Bay.	Volunteer with the local fishermen making and fixing fish traps to support their sustainable and eco friendly livelihood.	Free time to chill, relax and gather your thoughts.
Thursday	Snorkel the spectacular coral reefs in Kosi Bay, part of the UNESCO World Heritage Site.	Travel from Kosi Bay south to the Zululand Rhino Reserve area.	Vegetarian braai with songs and stories around the fire.
Friday	Get up and going early for a morning game drive, another chance to see Africa's Big 5.	Interact with elephants, the gentle giants before traveling to Balito.	Meet up with fellow Road Trippers from the AmaPondo Land Trip and exchange stories over dinner.
Saturday	Spend the morning at the beach surfing, swimming or just topping up your tan.	Drop off at King Shaka airport

When designing the itinerary, we aim to keep time in the Landys to a minimum. However, South Africa is a big place! In order for you to get to see and experience as much as possible, there will be the odd day where you are in the car for longer periods of time. Luckily, you'll be accompanied at all times by our Guide who will while away the hours with fun facts about the area and culture as well as spotting any interesting animals along the way. These drives also give you time to practice your newly acquired language skills with each other, catch up online using the Global Handprints tablet (network connection permitting) and also play any of the games listed in our handy little 'Road Tripper's Games' book. Got a great game you want future Road Trippers to play? Feel free to add it in and leave your mark.

Please remember that, although we do our best to put together an itinerary that is suitable for all ages, fitness levels and mindsets, we understand some people may want to sit out on the odd occasion. Unfortunately, because our itineraries are organized in advance with community project and business partners, we are unable to offer a discount for any activities that are not taken part in.

We endeavour to provide volunteer work and adventure activities exactly as they appear on the itinerary. However, TIA! (This Is Africa). That means that sometimes things will change due to weather, cultural holidays or simply what side of bed people get out of that morning. We will keep all Road Trippers up to date with changes along the way and should itineraries change once bookings have been made, we will let you know!